

NSLDS- The National Student Loan Database System is a comprehensive national database containing information about the federal financial aid history of students who receive assistance under the Title IV of the Higher Education Act.

